In Other News...

Nicol Lum, our Chief Technical Officer, took an indefinite leave of absence from B2B earlier in the year to focus on her last semester of school. She also plans to explore her other personal interests in her spare time.

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank Nicol for everything she has done for B2B. Working with Nicol to produce Begin 2 Believe newsletters has been a fulfilling and goal achieving experience. B2B would not be what it is now without Nicol's hard work and her outstanding contributions. Best of luck in all your future endeavours Nicol!
